Your email dated May 3, 2012, addressed to the Minister of Justice and Attorney General, has been forwarded to me for response on her behalf.

I note your concerns regarding your dismissal from BC Stats. It appears that this matter has been dealt with under the collective agreement between the Government of British Columbia and the British Columbia Government and Service Employees' Union. It is not within the mandate of the Minister of Justice and Attorney General to become involved in such disputes.

This is a matter that falls within the responsibilities of the Minister of Labour, Citizens' Services and Open Government, the Honourable Margaret MacDiarmid. I note that you have copied Ms. MacDiarmid on your email in her capacity as a Member of the Legislative Assembly.

If you need advice about your legal rights and options, you may wish to consult a lawyer in private practice. A number of groups in this province provide free legal services and information. Although this ministry does not endorse or confirm the accuracy or completeness of information or advice provided by any of the following resources, I understand that they are currently available to British Columbians.
